PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION MANUAL

1. PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on March 09, 2001. The PAIA seeks to give effect to the rights granted under the Constitution to the State and individuals on access to any information held by the State and private entities or where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights and also grants to natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights to information

The Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA") promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies upon certain conditions to establish the minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. The POPIA has amended certain provisions of PAIA to give a balance on the need for access to information vis a vis the need to ensure the protection of personal information with the provision for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA.

The POPIA also issued codes of conduct and the protection for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.

In accordance with the PIPA, where a request is made to a private body the private body must disclose the requested information where the requester is able to show that the information is required for the exercise and/or protection of any rights, and provided that no grounds of refusal contained in PAIA are applicable. The PAIA sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests.

Section 51 of the PAIA requires private entity's to compile a manual on how to access information held by each entity with the stipulated minimum requirements for compliance with the PIPA.

This document is the GZI SA PAIA manual in accordance with section 51 of PAIA and the POPIA. The manual includes information on the processing of personal information and the process for the submission of objections to same including the requests to delete and/or destroy personal information or records thereof in terms of POPIA at GZI SA.

5. OBJECTIVES OF THIS MANUAL

The objectives of this Manual are:

- to provide a list of all records held by the legal entity;
- to set out the requirements with regard to who may request information in terms of PAIA as well as the grounds on which a request may be denied;
- to define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted; and
- to comply with the additional requirements imposed by POPIA

Disclaimer:

The contents of this document should only be used for and by GZI (Pty) Ltd and may not be distributed unlawfully. Older versions are not deemed official. Only the latest version is acceptable.

6. ENTRY POINT FOR REQUESTS

PAIA provides that a person may only make a request for information, if the information is required for the exercise or protection of a legitimate right.

At GZI SA, information will not be furnished unless the individual requesting for the information provides sufficient particulars to enable GZI identify the rights that the requester seeks to protect as well as an explanation on why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right. The exercise of an individual's rights is subject to justifiable limitations, including the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and in compliance with effective, good governance. PAIA and the request procedure contained in this manual shall not be used for access to a record for criminal or civil proceedings, nor should information be requested after the commencement of such proceedings.

The Information Officer at GZI has been delegated with the task of receiving and co-ordinating all requests for access to records in terms of the PAIA, in order to ensure proper compliance with the PAIA and POPIA. The Information Officer will facilitate the liaison with the internal legal team on all requests.

All requests in terms of PAIA and this manual must be addressed to the Information Officer using the details in paragraph 3 above.

10. CATEGORIES OF RECORDS AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

GZI SA maintains records on the categories and subject matters listed below. Please note that recording a category or subject matter in this manual does not imply that a request for access to such records would be honoured. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the provisions of PAIA.

Please note further that many of the records held by GZI are those of third parties, such as clients and employees, and GZI takes the protection of third-party confidential information very seriously. In particular, where GZI SA acts as professional advisors to clients, their records

11. REQUEST PROCEDURE

11.1. Completion of the prescribed form

Any request for access to a record in terms of PAIA must substantially correspond with Form C of Annexure B to Government Notice No. R.187 dated 15 February 2002 and should be specific in terms of the record requested. Please complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Appendix A and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address:

Alphina.Kekae@gzican.com (See Appendix A hereto.)

A request for access to information which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to you.

POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request GZI SA to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.

POPIA also provides that where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, GZI must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the data subject pays a deposit for all or part of the fee.

Grounds for refusal of the data subject's request are set out in PAIA and are discussed below.

POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by GZI SA, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing.

The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Appendix C - Form 1 and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address: alphina.kekae@gzican.com.

Section 24 of POPIA provides that a data subject having provided adequate proof of identity may request access to personal information as per Appendix D - Form 3 by submitting a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address: alphina.kekae@gzican.com.

A data subject may also request GZI to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that GZI SA is no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address: alphina.kekae@gzican.com set out above on the form, attached hereto as Appendix E - Form 2.

11.2. Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

11.3. Payment of the prescribed fees

There are two categories of fees which are payable:

- The request fee: R50
- The access fee: This is calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs. These fees are set out in Appendix B.

Section 54 of PAIA entitles GZI SA to levy a charge or to request a fee to enable it to recover the cost of processing a request and providing access to records. The fees that may be charged are set out in Regulation 9(2)(c) promulgated under PAIA.

When a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

11.4. Timelines for consideration of a request for access

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.

Disclaimer:

The contents of this document should only be used for and by GZI (Pty) Ltd and may not be distributed unlawfully. Older versions are not deemed official. Only the latest version is acceptable.

Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

11.5. Grounds for refusal of access and protection of information

There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:

- the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- if disclosure would result in the breach of confidence owed to a third party;
- if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put GZI (at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition); and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by GZI.

Section 70 of the PAIA contains an overriding provision wherein the disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such a third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty-one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty-one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the grant of access to the record.

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE ON THE REFUSAL OF ACCESS

If the Information Officer decides to grant access to the particular record, such access must be granted to the requester within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

There is no internal appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome of the request, you are entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant the access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, the requester will be granted access to the record.
